

Catechists at Holy Redeemer

Norma Dawes is a retired Textile Engineer and grandmother. She has been scouting for ways of improving her communication of the Catholic faith to her grandchildren and came across the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd and has been zealous in helping out for the realization of this very promising endeavor of the CGS in the Holy Redeemer Parish.

Patti Hendricks is a Montessori school teacher and a Consultant helping families bring the Montessori method into their home. She has over 15 years of experience working with children and has specialized Montessori training for the ages between 0 and 3.

Anita Kuriakose is a working mother to a 5-year old daughter and got interested in the CGS because of its Montessori-based educational methodology which allows the child to explore, ponder and experience God by himself/herself by listening to the presentations and working with hands-on materials. Anita was involved in bringing CGS to Holy Redeemer from the inception.

Suzanne Sheppard is a retired nurse and grandmother to 15 grandchildren. She has been volunteering with the CGS at Holy Redeemer since late 2014 and brings her 4-year old grandson to CGS. Suzanne is now a Catechist for the CGS.
